It may be pointed out that an epidemic hospital exists and that the place exists for the erection of matcheds on any extraordinary occasion. That is true, but there are two points to be considered with reference to that. The epidemic hospital is not under the control or management of the Board. It is under the control of the Colonial Surgeon and the Civil Medical Officers of the Colony, My contention is that Hospital with the necessary buildings and so re land should be placed at the disposal of the Beard and remain under their control and management, and that a Health Officer should A meeting of the Sanitary Board was held be attached to the Board. Surely segregation in the case of contagious diseases was one of the duties of the Board How anyone could consider that in the case of an epidemia the Board was relieved of all responsibility for segregation was a mystery to nim. He could not understand what a Sanitary Board was for if it was not to look after the public health during epidemies. The discussion of the question was almost an insult to the Board. The Colonial Surgeon said taking area of one hundr d yards there were nothing but brothels round the Hospital. There were 15 to 40 immates in each of these houses, and for the last ten years there had not been a case of small-pox in any of the houses.

Dr. CANTLIE said he was vory sorry this disofficers for the carrying out of the provisions cassion had arisen and he was was very sorry to of the Ordinance. They have no hospital, no hear the Colonial Surgeon say that the opinion

WUCHANG, 9th September.

The wave of rumour and unbasiness has rolled back upon us. The auccess of the Ichang riot and the general excitement and absorption of the officials in the provincial examinations appear to have set the mischief makers to work again. On Monday anonymous notices were thrown into the compounds of the Roman Catholic and Lonion Missions, which adjoin each other near the north gate of the city. These notices were in rhyming couplets, the characters arranged so as to form the strokes of the big words. " Heaven will not endure you." Numerous wrong characters were evidently intended to convey the idea of the illiterateness of the writer. The notice itself was an exposition of the text shore given, with which we are now as familiar -that the foreigners with their pretence of trade and religion are with their money to be driven out of the empire, at the latest by next spring. The letter ended with grim politeness -" with compliments to the foreigners." The matter was at once brought before the notice of H.B.M. Consul, and the native authorities were were issued to the various camps and barracks, and gnards of soldiers were attached to the various Missions. A visit was paid by I the Consul and the Captain of the British gunboat to the scene of the threat, and all precautions taken and arrangements made for rendezvous in case of disturbance. The day occupied by the grand procession to the Exmen-of-war was flashed over the whole place. The writer lives in the southern half of the city. Hospital was a source of danger. It was simply out off by the Snake Hill from right of the other half and of Hankow. In the past we have ro-Westedly seen the search light flashing over the other side of the hill, but lest night was the That the small pox wards in the Tong Wah | first time our region has been illuminated. The moral effect of that electric light is most valuable. It is a sort of putting into dramatic form, The eye of Europe is upon you," which is checking to stray soraps of Harope stranded the signs of the streets twice in the last twelve hours. An opium suicide led me a long way at midnight; the same dead streets, the same owlishly sleepy wardens turning patiently out of their kennels to unbar the street gates, just the same as asual! even. I find this morning, the same thieves as usual trying to broak into my neighbour's house and failing in the attempt. This morning I walked the main streets from end to end, and save for finding them densely crowded through the examinations. I noticed no signs of were to occur to-morrow the Board would . The Cononial Surgion denied having said snything out of the ordinary. But there natives of the place certainly know nothing, and are evidently worried at the unrest which is our good fortune has its disadvantages. I Ichang has but added one lesson to many others He ed even now whether these recent alarms may China you can never tell till after the event. Meanwhile, "not being able to tell" grows

There is much said about vigorous telegrams received here on Monday from the Tsung-li Yamen, and there is no doubt that H.E. Chang hib-tung is highly enraged at Ichang thus stapping in to keep up the trouble of Wusueb: As to the future—there are ominous whispers here of the temper in which the numerous official Huranese living here have received the suggestion of the opening of their province to trade. But, if the Imperial Government be kept up to its duty by the Western Powers, whispers and mucmurs won't finally stop the march of events. One thing is now absolutely essential; any demands must be pashed right through. There must be no half measures if China is to be bearable for the future. Daily News correspondent.
